Pirineo Aragones

The wild Pyrenees of Aragon, where Barrabés is located, is today the destiny of people all over the world. For all those who love the forests, the juxtaposition of the mediterranean and the high mountain climate, the wonderful 3000 m+ mountains, the big stone walls, the lakes, the glaciers... but not many people get to visit the tiny uninhabited villages, lost in the mountains which are now in ruins. Life has been very hard, with a subsistence economy. The ruined hamlets tell us about the terrible exile of its inhabitants, about an authentic way of life that goes back to neolithic times and which some mountain dwellers still lead. We are told what governments have done, the forgotten territory, full of big artificial lakes to produce electricity that have broken up communities and land. This book tells us the story of these people, the ones who have decided to withstand the inevitable. Now, it's their turn to speak. With great colour pictures, de-luxe edition. Author: Santiago Mendieta. Photographs: Étienne Polet. In Spanish. 171 pages.
